

Electric Portable, Floor Lamps and Domes Portable Lamps

What would be more appropriate and useful a gift to your wife, mother or sister, than one of these beautiful Lamps for the parlor, dining-room, or a small ivory standard Lamp for the boudoir? They will not only be appreciated now, but every glance at one of these handsome lights will bring up memories of the loved one who made such a useful gift.

Floor Lamps

Our Floor Lamps with mahogany standards and embroidered shades are in the most pleasing of color effects. Ask us to light them for you, so that you may see this display. Also a beautiful Willow Lamp to match that willow furniture of yours.

Domes

Our line of Domes, both with direct and indirect lighting systems, is as complete as money and good judgment can make it.

Look our show windows over to-night when you are down-town. They will be all lighted up and that is the proper time to judge a lamp.

Largest line of new and second-hand ranges and heaters in Barre at lowest prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

Mrs. John McDonald of Liberty left yesterday for Needham, Mass., to pass the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hall.

S. Della Santa and Mario Galli of North Main street left this morning for Lanesboro, where they plan to pass a week at rabbit hunting.

The Woman's Exchange has just received four handsome, homemade, braided rugs. A full line of Mrs. Hale's original Christmas cards on sale—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of St. Johnsbury Center returned to their home yesterday, having visited for the past few days with friends in Barre and Graniteville.

H. J. M. Jones of the Jones Bros. Co., recently re-appointed as Vermont state fuel administrator, is in Boston, attending a conference of the New England fuel administrators.

James B. Hall of Boston, a representative of the American Auditing Co. and a former resident of Barre, is in the city for a few days on business in the interest of his firm.

Reopening of old Page brothers' stable, batters to have everything in readiness for the Christmas season by the end of the week. Nice clean office for ladies. F. H. Hopkins.

Rally day at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:30. The pastor has recovered from his illness and will preach. He would like to see every member and adherent present.

N. W. Hawkes of St. Albans, general freight agent of the Central Vermont railway, and Superintendent S. N. Russell, also of St. Albans and the Central Vermont railway, were in Barre yesterday.

The male quartet which has been making a name here in Barre, will sing at the opening of the first two acts in the musical comedy, "Marrying Mary."

The singers are Messrs. Bennett, Nelson, Frenier and McKenzie.

S. Hollister Jackson, president of the International Monumental Producers' association, returned yesterday from Quincy, Mass., having been a guest at the Quincy Granite Manufacturers' association's annual banquet.

On account of the coal strike, two young men, who left Barre about two weeks ago, with the purpose of seeking employment in the machine shops in Detroit, Mich., were obliged to return, as there was no work for them there. They are James Furey and Albert McDonald.

Word has been received from Arthur Deans, a former Barre boy, who has been in the Royal Victoria hospital for the past few months taking treatment for a shrapnel wound, that he submitted last Saturday to a second operation, this time it being for appendicitis.

Carroll's orchestra returned this afternoon from Bristol, where it played last evening at the bankers' ball. Henry Carroll, who has been singing with the orchestra on this trip, leaves tonight for Hartford, Conn., his sister, Miss Beatrice, returning with him. Mr. Carroll has employment there.

In "A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the opera house this afternoon and to-night, the native Hawaiian singers and musicians will be found to occupy a great deal of the spectators' attention. Hawaiian music by the gifted native singers and players has been a great success in America because it is different—adv.

During the past two days several men have been engaged installing in the Universalist church an organ blower, an electrical motor air supply pump. The work which was begun Thursday was practically completed to-day and it was the hopes of the plumbers and carpenters to have everything in readiness for the Sunday morning services at the church. This is one of several such motors installed in churches in Barre.

James Palmer of Eastern avenue, an employee of the Cook & Watkins Depot square granite manufacturing plant, is going to spend the winter months with relatives in Scotland. He plans to leave to-morrow for New York and leave New York next Wednesday on the steamship Carmania for Aberdeen, Scotland, his native home. His stay in Scotland will last until the spring, when he will return to Barre to resume work in the granite industry.

Under the direction of the home economics department, the ladies of the Barre Woman's club and guests were very pleasantly entertained last Tuesday afternoon by a demonstration given by Gilda Cappel, chef of the Elks club, Montpelier. Mr. Cappel, in his very pleasing manner, not only proved his efficiency in the culinary line, but also entertained the ladies by singing several selections in Italian and French, which were very much applauded. His cooking being of such high class, it is hoped he may again come to Barre. After the demonstration, there was a food sale and a splendid display of cooked food very quickly disappeared.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Noonan of 15 East street and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burke of Summer street returned from Boston yesterday, where they have been since last Sunday. Messrs. Noonan, Burke and Joseph Weaver made the trip to Boston in the interest of the Barre council, Knights of Columbus. The club rooms in the Scamplin block are being remodelled and for this reason new furniture had to be secured, together with a new billiard table. This change is made by removing two partitions and converting two small anterooms and a card room into a large pool and billiard room. The present pool room is to be converted into a pleasant reading and lounging room, and the present reading room into a card room. The rooms are being repainted and various other changes are to be made to improve the club rooms and dance hall. These changes were found necessary since the local council has almost doubled its membership in the past year over that gained during the past 18 years.

A Card.

To all those who so generously contributed their time and talent in making the concert such a splendid success, also to those who otherwise assisted, we extend our hearty thanks.

The Barre Scottish Bagpipe and Drum Band.

E. M. Woodworth, traveling expert mechanic and representative of the American LaFrance Fire Engine Co., Inc., is now at the Barre fire station overhauling the LaFrance truck engine, putting it in good condition for the winter months. Mr. Woodworth, who came here Oct. 22, was ordered to Halifax, N. F., the afternoon he arrived in Barre and for this reason the inspection has been delayed for some time. A few new parts were found necessary, whereupon Mr. Woodworth communicated directly with the Boston branch office last night so that the parts might arrive to-day and the work completed by to-night. The inspection work is done at the expense of the company. For emergency during the overhauling work a Ford car, filled with chemical tanks, is kept in readiness to answer any alarm and the horses also kept at the stables while the truck is undergoing repairs.

The office of cemetery commissioners will be open each evening from Dec. 10 to Jan. 1 for the collection of all bills. Hours, 6:30 to 9 p. m. Cemetery Commissioners.
